

Campaign Advocacy Internship Opportunity

Build Alaska's Future Action Fund (BAFAF) offers an exciting remote Internship opportunity for the 2024 election season from March to November. This flexible and remote position allows you to contribute from anywhere. As an Intern, you'll coordinate our public engagement and digital media strategy, including social media development and campaign messaging. You'll also work closely with our communications team, engage in day-to-day operations, and contribute to various campaign materials. If you're a team player with strong communication skills, share our commitment to bi-partisanship, and want to support candidates with aligned values, join us for this internship and help build Alaska's future!

This stipend-based internship requires a minimum commitment of 20 hours per week. Successful candidates should be proficient in all forms of digital media, hold a bachelor's degree, be currently enrolled in an undergraduate program, or possess equivalent experience. Understanding Alaska's political landscape, interest in policy and election integrity, and a commitment to keeping the 'conversation on the rails' with factual information is essential. Moreover, supporting federal Alaska candidates who endorse the bipartisan infrastructure law and its implications is a key focus. Prior nonprofit advocacy, social media, or campaign experience is a plus. Hours and pay are negotiable, and the position allows remote work from any U.S. region. Alaskans are preferred.

Build Alaska's Future Action Fund is a 501(c)(4) social welfare nonprofit organization dedicated to statewide educational efforts. Our primary mission is to provide essential information regarding the benefits and opportunities arising from federal infrastructure funding for Alaska. As a 501(c)(4) organization, we actively participate in political advocacy to advance policies that align with our mission and enhance the community's well-being. Our commitment involves disseminating critical information about federal infrastructure funding, endorsing pro-infrastructure candidates, and fostering unity within the politically polarized landscape. We aim to increase in-state engagement with Alaska's congressional delegation, highlight local impacts and opportunities resulting from federal legislation, and leverage national relationships through our coalition of diverse stakeholders.

If you qualify for this exciting opportunity, please apply today by sending your resume and cover letter to info@bafaction.org. Application deadline is March 9, 2024.
